25-29 JANUARY 2010

0161 488 1737

Welcome to the first 2010 edition of the Catholic Education Recruitment bulletin, or CER bulletin.

The CER was launched late last year and is sent free of charge into the staff room of every Catholic School in Great Britain during school term time*

The aim of the bulletin was to highlight teaching vacancies above and beyond the pages of the UK's largest selling Catholic Newspaper, The Universe. The CER offers an additional way of strengthening the Catholic Education sector by getting directly into the schools themselves!

- If you are looking for a new position, you can find the latest vacancies either in the bulletin or online at totalcatholic.com/education. You can also order digital copies to be sent to your own email address at totalcatholic.com/store or can order additional copies in the coupon below.

- If you are looking to fill a position within your school, we have worked extremely hard to create a very cost effective option within the current UK Catholic media. Through 150 years of promoting teaching vacancies in The Universe, we understand the difficulties there can be in recruiting new, high calibre staff - especially in today's climate. Whilst some could argue that the Times Education Supplement is saturated with recruitment advertisements that have to compete for attention, others might argue that advertising locally might be too narrow a search; and could possibly overlook excellent candidates from elsewhere.

The CER bulletin reaches directly into the marketplace and also generously offers free advertising into The Universe newspaper. To add to this, we place any vacancy on totalcatholic.com for free, and with our website rapidly becoming one of the UK's most popular Catholic portals, it's a great supporting option. Finally, we have also addressed the expensive matter of readvertising vacancies - we will do this at just fifty per cent of the original rate and then all further advertisements will be published for free until the vacancy is either filled or until the closing date expires!

The Education team behind the Universe and the CER bulletin are already discussing how we can further improve the recruitment process, and ultimately Catholic Education, with bodies such as the CES, CISC and CATSC.

If you have any suggestions or vacancies email
cer@totalcatholic.net
Or, to discuss advertising a vacancy, speak to our Education recruitment specialist, Amila on 0161 488 1737

*subject to advertising support.

Please send me a copy of the CER each week in term time when it is published
